

Priority Community
Credit Union

PRIVACY DISCLOSURE

Priority Community Credit Union, a member-owned financial institution, is governed by a Board of Directors elected by our members. We want you to know that the privacy and confidentiality of your personal information is a top priority with the credit union. We are required by law to provide you with this notice in order to inform and explain to you how we collect, use, and safeguard your personal financial information. If you have any questions about this disclosure or what it says, please contact a member service representative at the credit union.

• Information Collected – We may collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

Information we receive from you on applications or other forms, including electronic forms

Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates or others

Information that we receive from a consumer reporting agency

• Information Disclosed – We may disclose all of the information that we collect, as described above, under certain circumstances and as permitted or required by law.

• Third Parties to Whom Disclosure is Made – We may disclose the above information to the following parties in order to process transactions, or for benefit of the credit union, or to protect credit union assets:

Affiliates – such as a shared branch network, providing remote transaction services to members

Nonaffiliated third parties that perform services or functions on the credit union's behalf - for example, companies that provide mailing service or provide a variety of insurances for sale to members.

Nonaffiliated third parties that perform marketing services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements.

Other nonaffiliated third parties as permitted by law.

- Former Members - The credit union shares nonpublic personal information with nonaffiliated third parties about persons who have ceased being members of the credit union as permitted or required by law.

- Confidentiality and Security of Members' Information - We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to employees, and our official family. Those individuals need to know information about you to provide products and services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to protect against anticipated threats or hazards to the security of your information and to protect against unauthorized access and use of that information.

Under no circumstances do we provide any information we collect about you to telemarketers or other third parties that do not act on your behalf as a member of this credit union. We provide all users of our ATMs with protection of their personal financial information.
